In a world that gives in a little more each day to plastic prefabrication and cost-efficiency, there are few remaining bastions of unqualified, uncompromised craftsmanship. One is our S.T. Dupont factory-workshop, near the village of Faverges in the shadow of Mont Blanc. That is where our S.T. Dupont writing instruments, cigarette lighters and other accessories are built to the standards of the world's elite, artists, shiks and collectors. It's the only place in the world where individuality is made among our clientele for almost 200 years. And now our line products are slightly more convenient. The S.T. Dupont Boutique, 680 Madison Avenue at 62nd Street, New York City 10021. For more information, call (212) 939-4224, or write for our catalogue.

Dear Ann —
Thanks for the three recipes.
They sound great.

Next assured that I will report to you on my success in making them. No orange-jelly sounds wonderful!

Food, glorious food! How we all do love to eat.
